Smith Receives Clarkson Honors

Kenneth G. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg A. Smith of Halsey rd., Port Byron a senior and chemical engineering major at Clarkson college of technology at Potsdam, was among nine seniors, all members of the Clarkson college Reserve Officers Training Corps battalion, who have recently been designated as "distinguished military students."

Smith, who, with his designation is enabled to apply for a direct commission in the regular army, was graduated from Port Byron Central school in 1947. At Clarkson he is a member of Karma, social fraternity, the student chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, and is active on the staff of WNTC, the campus radio station.

Selection for the designation is based on ROTC and general academic work at the college and on a careful evaluation of performance at the ROTC summer camp.
